

DIP KUMAR ROY

FRONT-END & WORDPRESS DEVELOPER

About Me

I am Dip Kumar Roy, a professional Front-End & WordPress Developer with expertise in HTML, CSS, jQuery, Bootstrap, and JavaScript. I specialize in custom WordPress development (without Elementor), converting static HTML into dynamic WordPress themes with full admin control. With experience in 25-30 dynamic projects, I focus on creating responsive, SEO-friendly, and high-performance websites. Additionally, I have skills in graphic design, including logo creation, festival post banners, and promotional designs using Photoshop and Canva.
